"CHEST-SHIELD"

We have introduced have become well and favorably known. Those who have tried them say that they are the best SHIRTS they have ever seen.

IT PROTECTS THE LUNGS WITHOUT THE USE OF EXTRA LUNG PROTECTORS. AT Recommended by leading physicians as a garment of great value to all who are exposed to the rigors of our changeable climate, or have a tendency to any lung diffi-

The "CHEST-SHIELD" is double, both front and back (remember the lungs are as much exposed on the back as in front), the dotted lines in the cut show the portions made double. The lungs are thus protected and security is afforded from pulmonary complaints, incident to sudden changes of the weather, etc. The "Chest-Shield" in Scarlet is recommended particularly, for its Great Anti-Rheumatic Qualities. TRY IT, AND YOU WILL ISE NONE OTHER.

It costs no more than other makes of same quality, and while it has all the advantages of a WOOL FLANNEL SHIRT, the shrinkage is not as great, at the same time it is made longer. The seams are finished, and the PRICES below speak more powerful than any logic can:

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

The Gray Murder Trial. Redwood City, November 21st. — The Gray case came on again to-day. Some ten or twelve witnesses have been examined for the defense. The testimony of Mr. Jenkins, given at the first trial in Santa Barbara, was read in evidence. Mr. Farley, barkeeper at the Grand Hotel, San Francisco, was called by the defense, and testified that Swift, one of the witnesses for the prosecution, told him previous to the other trial, at the Grand Hotel, that he was going to Redwood City to help hang Gray. The defendant, Gray, will be placed on the stand to-morrow morning, and the arguments will probably commence in the afternoon.

Guerneville by H. H. Hazs, the business manager of S. Schloss, a merchant of that place. The would-be incendiary placed cans place. The would-be incendiary placed cans of call of under the store of O. Morris, and also under the postoffice near by. He was caught while in the act of setting fire to the oil, by parties who had been watching his movements. He fled upon being detected, and was fired upon twice before being captured. His supposed intention was to secure the insurance on the stock of goods in Schloss' store, and to get rid of his rival, as the store of Morris adjoined that of Schloss, and that he fired the former to avoid suspicion. ## DIPLOMATIC MANEUVERING.

The diplomatists of Russia, Germany, Austria and France are at present engaged in some rather delicate maneuvering. There have been rumors of trouble, first between Russia and Austria, second, between Russia and Germany, and as nobody is quite ready for war, it is necessary to smooth over these matters, and restore the entente cordiale, at least for the time. It is highly probable, perhaps we might say almost certain, that Russia and Germany will go to war in the near future. The enmity between the Slav and the Teuton renders this inevitable. But for the moment it is desirable to maintain at least the appearance of pleasant relations, and this show may last until either Emperor William of Germany dies, or until some new move of the Nihilists renders the Czar desperate, and impels him to seek temporary protection for his life in a foreign war. But the diplomatists are werking as hard as if they believed that the present situation could last.

In this city it has been known for many years to every thinking man that we were living in great and ever-increasing danger because of our want of proper drainage. Yet nothing is done about it, and though year by year the natural consequences of defiance of hygienic laws are more forcibly impressed upon us, we pass the whole subject by as Beerstecher-met in San Francisco yesterday, and though it were immaterial, and fall to without transacting any business adjourned until discussing, with the utmost eagerness, the rival claims of two sets of political impostors who are trying to outlie one another. P. S.—For private diseases of short standing, a full course of medicine and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpud appearsnoe. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urnnary organs.

Office hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sunday, from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice, $5. Call or address.
